

Live a unique dinner experience at Grand Hotel de la Minerve

A real piece of jewel in the inner part of Rome, among history and art: Grand Hotel de la Minerve is a stunning 5 star hotel facing the Pantheon and near to Navona Square, the Trevi Fountain and the Spanish Steps.

Thanks to this unique position you can enjoy a wonderful Rome overview, even at dinner: in summertime, the luxury à la carte restaurant Roof Garden will please the Guests with delicious food and with a wonderful terrace featuring an unmissable panoramic view over Pantheon and the whole city. This way, Rome will be the special background of a very romantic dinner, turning out to be the perfect location for a special evening.

The Chef , Mr. Antonio Falco, will be glad to offer a real trip through Italian typical dishes: "I love artistic food and I especially love the Imperial Gran Buffet. I also mix traditional food from different parts of Italy, adding a special touch of creativity and fantasy" he claims.

Also Maître Stefano Ambrosini will enhance the magic atmosphere with refined music and a delicate candle light.

The hotel also provides the guest another à la carte restaurant called La Cesta, which features international food as well as Mediterranean speciality, including Roman great dishes such as crayfish with rosemary and potato and saffron, Bavarese with mozzarella, bread with San Daniele ham, lamb carrè with herbs, grilled babà with limoncello.

Mr. Falco adds: "This summer I would like to introduce lots of new dishes both for lunch and dinner; I'll add a nice touch of typical cooking from Naples, where I come from. I love choosing Mediterranean food to make the Guests live very tasty dishes".

Grand Hotel de la Minerve will make you live the pleasure of a dinner in Rome from another special point of view.
